

Community Council of Gwinnett County, Inc.

The Community Council of Gwinnett County, Inc. is a not-for-profit group of organizations whose mission is to bring people together to improve the community through networking, resource collaboration, and education.

Since 1968, the Council has mobilized resources to improve the quality of life for citizens of Gwinnett County. The Council strives to provide education through networking advocacy to help citizens benefit from existing services and resources.

Come Join Us!

Membership is open to all individuals, agencies, businesses, civic, and religious groups. The Council meets on the third Wednesday of each month August through May. Meet and greet begins at 9:30 a.m.; the meeting starts at 10:00 a.m. at the J.M. Tull YMCA, 2985 Sugarloaf Parkway, Lawrenceville.

We are active, we are committed, and we NEED YOU! Our desire to make Gwinnett County better and stronger needs to be shared and brought to realization through the people who live here.

The Council in Action

Council members contribute their time, expertise, and resources by serving on working committees.

Community Action

Members identify the gaps in the health, welfare, and educational needs in the community and work to find solutions through the Council.

Networking and Resources

Members collaborate with county agencies and businesses to educate our council members. They assist in the selection and scheduling of speakers for our monthly meetings.

Gwinnett Lifestyle Show Case

This committee comprised of Council members and community organizations brings together agencies that serve Gwinnett citizens age 50 and older. An annual event is held each spring.

Public Relations

This committee promotes volunteer, agency and Council activities to the Gwinnett community. It also maintains the CCGC website.

Membership Committee

This committee is responsible for developing recruitment strategies and the welcoming of members and guests each month. The resources of each member are compiled, and a directory is published.

Membership fees are:

- ◆ $30 for agency/business
- ◆ $15 for each additional person in the same agency
- ◆ $20 for an individual (not connected with an agency or company)

Members receive copies of the monthly meeting minutes and have voting rights. A directory is published annually for members. Our website contains links to member agencies. Please visit www.commcouncilgc.org
